

Emmanuel Newsletter
Sunday, March 14, 2021

Dear Friends of Emmanuel,

This week we will honor the Rt. Rev. Barbara C. Harris in our prayers and discussion. All of the readings for March 14th are from the suggested lessons for Bishop Harris. You are invited to reflect on the readings as well as to share any stories that you might have of your experiences with Bishop Harris. I will do the same. I was there on the Cathedral staff when she was elected and had the blessing of being with her in some of her first contacts with parishes. She was a powerful and courageous bearer of the Gospel. When I became rector of my first parish, Grace Church in Everett, Bishop Harris was there at my Institution. At the time there were only seven women rectors in the diocese. We have come a long way, thanks to the hard work and courage of people like her.

Together let us share some examples of other giants of the church, on Saturday, March 13th at 5:00 p.m. by Zoom. Enclosed is an article about Bishop Harris from the Diocese of Massachusetts.

Yours in Christ,

The Rev. Dr. Joyce Caggiano

Neponset River Deanery Meeting Thursday, March 11, 2021 at 7:00 pm Open to All Emmanuel Parishioners

The Neponset River Deanery, of which Emmanuel Church is a member, has been invited by the Diocesan Council into the Mission Strategy discussion. To that end, a special Deanery Assembly Zoom meeting will take place on Thursday, March 11 from 7:00- 8:15pm. Claudette Hunt, the co-chair of the Mission Strategy committee, will facilitate the meeting.

This meeting is open to other members of Emmanuel Church, not just Deanery representatives. See the Zoom link below to participate:
