The Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, October 24, 2021
Emmanuel Church,
West Roxbury, MA

Dear Friends,

Thank you to all those who helped to make the Baptism and Blessing of the Animals happy and successful events. It was a red-letter day!

A special thank you to Terri Halliday, Anne Jackson, Andy Castiglione, Cathy McCarthy and all those who made the day go smoothly. Thank you to Mary Nelson, Leah, Max and Thomas for bringing Jack to us to be Baptized. Please forgive me if I have left anyone out. It was truly a community happening.

Coming up quickly on our calendar is All Saints Day on November 1st. Emmanuel will celebrate the lives of those who have died on Sunday, November 7th in order to provide an opportunity to invite the wider community to join us. For November 7th I would like the names and pictures (if you have them) of those you would like to honor. We will also lift up the lives who have died of COVID over the past year.

Our Gospel for October 24th brings us the story of Jesus curing the blind man. May we ponder ways that our eyes have been opened in the past and ask God to continue to bring us clarity, knowledge, and insight to grow in our faith.

God Bless you.

The Rev. Joyce Caggiano, Priest in Residence
