Fellow Parishioners

Today is the beginning of Holy Week. It is the beginning of our own sacred time. For the next seven days, Jesus will appear before us as the suffering Servant of the Lord. Each day we will see another facet of what it means that he is the Lamb of God who has come to take away our sins.

All week long, we have a golden opportunity to ponder the deepest roots of our faith. We have the opportunity not just to recall that Jesus died for our sins but to know that every sin we may have committed can be wiped away. To know that we are destined for eternal life with him.

The hour has come. Try to carve out a few extra minutes for prayer each day. Or spend a little more time with the Word of God. Or just gaze at the cross a little longer. Let the love that Jesus has for you fill your heart and heal your soul.

'Holy Spirit, let the grace of this Holy Week change my heart.'

Join us Sunday at 10am as we welcome the Rev Dr David Killian as Celebrant for the celebration of Palm Sunday.

Ken practices lacrosse with his son, Grant, on our large yard. There are many good reasons to have a large yard at Emmanuel. This is one of the good ones!
