Fellow Parishioners,

We are coming into Memorial Day weekend, a long weekend for most. Alas, I work two of these very, very busy days at Home Depot. But reaching out to parishioners established that many/most, would be away or otherwise celebrating and were not going to be able to attend services. As I would be working two hard days and I have not had a break from creating/overseeing this incredible program of Morning Prayer, I asked if anyone objected to not holding services this holiday weekend. There were no objections so this week's service will be held in our hearts.

For those that would like to read the readings for 5/29/22 they are:

First Lesson: Acts 16:16-34

The Second Lesson: Revelation 22:12-14,16-17,20-21

Third Lesson: John 17: 20-26

These will also be on our website at <https://emmanuelwr.org/sermons/>

These are three great Lessons. Revelation takes us to the final words of the Bible. Some say the Bible is ancient fable, some say it is the Word of God; one thing is for sure, it is the greatest story ever told!

Have a happy Memorial Day Weekend All.
