The Fourth Sunday after Pentecost
July 17, 2022
Emmanuel Church
West Roxbury, MA, 2022

Fellow Parishioners,

I know, it is hot. It is summer and hot is what we get.

We also get another visit from Fr Jon Eden this coming Sunday July 17! He has been with us before, and it has been an exceptional experience. If you check out our Facebook page, you will see pictures of his last visit on Trinity Sunday. Again, for those familiar with our Dialogue Sermon series, you might remember we had a Trinity Sunday that Rev. Joyce was away. It was an interesting experience not being able to really define the Trinity! Rev. Joyce did an excellent job in 2021 when she returned the following week and Fr. Jon did a wonderful job in 2022.

This week our lessons are Genesis 18, where the Lord appears to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre and learns that his wife Sarah will have a child. The Epistle is Colossians 1 where Paul proclaims his great commission that was given to him, for us, to make the Word of God fully known. The Gospel is Luke 10 when Jesus is welcomed into Martha's home.

So please join us at 10am on Sunday July 17 to welcome Fr. Jon.

Thank you.

As the war continues, we pray for Ukraine and its people. Our prayers truly help, as they keep us mindful of God's love for us all and the miracles that occur even when all seems lost.

Please consider donating to one of the many organizations raising money for Ukraine. If you prefer to donate directly to an organization focused on helping children in Ukraine, there is Save the Children: https://support.savethechildren.org/site/Donation2?df_id=5746&mfc_pref=T&5746.donation=form1

Another worthy organization is World Central Kitchen a nonprofit founded by Chef José Andrés providing food onsite in Ukraine and to refugees coming into border countries. Learn more at: <https://wck.org/>
