The Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost
September 25, 2022
Emmanuel Church
West Roxbury, MA 2022

Fellow Parishioners,

Welcome back from a wonderful and long summer! It was a great feeling to look out and see most, close to all, our regular parishioners in the pews.

This week our readings continue with Amos, Timothy, and the Gospel of Luke. These are Lessons I wish we could have covered during our Dialogue Sermon last year. It would have been good to have discussed all of these readings. I am anxiously awaiting this week's sermon.

As for the Service of Baptism last Sunday enough good cannot be said. It was a wonderful joint service by Fr. Jon Eden as celebrant and the Rev. Dr. Joyce Caggiano delivering the service of baptism. KJ seemed right at ease with all that was going on. Not a peep of protest when he was baptized with water. The celebration continued into coffee hour. I want to thank both Fr. Jon and Rev. Joyce and all those who participated in different ways to make this a very special and memorable day for the Belfon family.

In two weeks, we will host a dual event of the Blessing of the Animals and Music on the Lawn. For those with questions about what they can do to help make this a successful event, reach out to Cathy McCarthy or Anne Jackson. More on all of this next week. In the meantime, have a wonderful week and we hope to see you at the 10am Sunday service on September 25, 2022.

And remember, we need your support on Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube. Thank you.
