Fellow Parishioners and Friends,

We hope you had a happy Memorial Day weekend and that everyone enjoyed the holiday and spend a moment of quiet time in appreciation of those who sacrificed their lives for our country.

It is with a big smile that I can say that in spite of the long weekend we had a sizeable number of people attend our Pentecost service. It was fun. It was particularly joyful to hear all the different languages spoken at the Lesson at once. In ancient times, in spite of the many tongues that were spoken, everyone was understood. Consider listening to all the languages Emmanuel offered this Pentecost: English, Korean, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian and Russian on our YouTube site. Thanks to all who spread the word.

This Sunday we celebrate Trinity Sunday, the first Sunday after Pentecost. Trinity Sunday examines the oneness of God in his three forms, Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This festival is the only one that celebrates a doctrine/idea instead of a figure or event. The service is followed by the Blessing of the Sneakers for those running in the Corrib Road Race and the Parish Picnic. We welcome all to attend.

Make sure to check out our FB page for the latest updates and again, tune in to our YouTube page to view our May 28 Service of Pentecost and hear the sound of the those many tongues.

Thank you.

Terri and Ken, Co-wardens

Please consider donating to one of the many organizations raising money for Ukraine. If you prefer to donate directly to an organization focused on helping children in Ukraine, there is Save the Children:
