Fellow Parishioners and Friends,

We have an update of basically positive news from Fr. Jon. Things with his family are moving along. As is often the case, these things are never tidy or timely. This week we will continue with our Morning Prayer Service with hymns. John Gooley will be the Officiant and Kellon Belfon will be Lector. Esther Kwok, our organist, will lead us in the hymns.

A favorite service of mine is Morning Prayer. It is not only an official service by the parish priest it is also often a lay run ministry to fill in during clergy absences. As mentioned in the past, supply priests are not as bountiful as they once were, and the Morning Prayer service gives the laity a wonderful chance to actively participate in the creation and leadership of the service.

Please join us on Sunday, June 25, at our 10am service of Morning Prayer. Support the Lay Ministry!

Thank You.

Terri and Ken, Co-wardens
